Resolution on Worldly Amusements and Practices.—The following resolution was unanimously adopted, and, by request, the congregation present endorsed the sentiment of the resolution by rising to their feet:

WHEREAS, The painful fact confronts us that in many of our charges there seems to be an increasing tendency to worldly practices, such as attendance upon theaters, circuses, horse-races, and skating rinks, also attendance upon, and taking part in, dancing, progressive euchre, and other such parties; therefore,

Resolved, That we consider such practices a plain violation of the solemn promises made at baptism, and when received into full membership in the Church; and that it also clearly seems to us that they prevent personal piety, and destroy a relish for the means of grace; and there should be uniformity among our pastors and people in calling to an account any members of our Church, who may be unwilling to refrain from the above practices, after they have been faithfully labored with in the manner prescribed by the discipline.

REPORTS.

On Education.

Your Committee submit the following report by the visitors appointed by your body to DePauw University, and adopt it as their report to you.

DePauw University.

The visitors to DePauw University, appointed at the last session of Conference, would submit the following brief report: We visited the University during commencement week in June, and take pleasure in reporting to the Conference a most favorable condition of the Institution. We observed with pleasure the largely increased attendance of students, and the very satisfactory manner in which they acquitted themselves. The enlarged and increased facilities of the University, for its purposes, were particularly noticed.

To the Institution have been added a School of Music and Art, and a Department of Law. New buildings have been erected as follows: Art and Music Hall; the McKim Observatory; Ladies' Dormitory; Gentlemen's Dormitory, and an addition to West College, all of which are of very great importance and necessity. Additional grounds have been purchased as follows: University Park, at a cost of $20,000; East Park, at a cost of $11,000; and South Park, at a cost of $8,000.

The total cost of new buildings, grounds and other improvements, is about $195,000, the greater part of which has been furnished by Hon. W. C. DePauw, and the liberal citizens of Greencastle and the State.

The Law School, under Judge A. C. Downey, started out with excellent prospects and had a prosperous year.

The Music and Art departments were well patronized and closed a successful year. Both these departments give promise of being very successful.

The Normal department was organized at the first of this year, with favorable prospects. In the Department of Physics, in charge of Prof. Demotte, extensive improvements have been made, and much valuable apparatus purchased, which brings that department up to a proper standard of excellence. The signal service station recently established brings the University into prominence, and is an important item. Among the noticable wants of the Institution are buildings for the Schools of Law and of Theology.

The grounds around the buildings should be improved, and brought to a higher state of perfection.

These and other improvements necessary will create a demand for means.

We most earnestly commend the Institution and all its interests to the Conference, invoking sympathy and aid in every way.

THOMAS STABLER,
A. E. MAHIN,
Visitors.

Your Committee beg leave to make the following recommendations:

Trustees—C. C. Binkley, Esq.; Bishop Thomas Bowman.

Visitors—J. W. Welch, W. D. Parr.

Fort Wayne College.

In regard to Fort Wayne College, also, your Committee present the report of the visitors appointed to that Institution by you.

Your Committee of Visitors appointed to ascertain the condition and needs of the Fort Wayne College respectfully report as follows:

We find the Institution efficiently conducted in accordance with its charter and with the provisions of the Discipline.

The President, W. F. Yocum, is supported by a corps of teachers well qualified for their duties, and successful in their several departments of instruction. The course of study has been revised and enlarged, so that students are thoroughly prepared for entrance upon the sophomore class of the DePauw University, or of other reputable colleges, in either the classical or scientific course of study. A curriculum is also provided whereby students who, for want of time, money, or inclination, can not be induced to take a full university course, may be qualified for the various pursuits of business life.

The patronage of the school has been about the same as formerly. The average attendance is about 150.

The moral and religious influences in the College are marked. A daily prayer meeting is sustained, and a deep religious feeling prevails Parents may safely entrust their sons and daughters to the care of the faculty.

The needs of the College are most conspicuous in the lack of suitable dormitories, or cottage homes for young ladies, and the scarcity of means to put the grounds and old buildings in proper condition. With an additional outlay of $10,000, the Fort Wayne College would be placed in a condition to do academic work of the highest possible grade, preparing students for the higher Institutions of the Church, and for positions of usefulness and honor in all departments of business life.

The attention of the preachers is urgently called to the duty of sending students to this school of the church, recognizing the Fort Wayne College as peculiarly the educational institution of the North Indiana Conference.

M. SWADENER,
C. E. BACON,
Visitors.

The Committee of Education would recommend the election of the following Trustees for Fort Wayne College:

Rev. C. W. Lynch in place of A. W. Lamport, resigned.

Hon. R. Wes. McBride in place of Thos. Rodgers, resigned, and R. D. Robinson, John M. Miller, F. T. Simpson, G. W. Brackenridge and C. S. Smith, whose terms of office now expire, to be their own successors. Your committee also recommend the appointment of S. J. McElwee and J. B. Carns as visitors to Fort Wayne College.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

We also submit the report of the visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute: The commencement exercises of Garrett Biblical Institute were opened with a baccalaureate and inaugural sermon from Dr. M. S. Terry, Professor of Old Testament Exegesis.

The clear and eloquent manner in which he presented the subject of "Hebrew Revelation" awakened an interest that was maintained throughout the different exercises of the occasion.

C. W. Bennett, Professor of Historic Theology, and C. F. Bradley, of the Chair of New Testament Exegesis, delivered their inaugural addresses—as newly elected professors—on Monday evening, and made a very fine impression.

At a meeting of the Alumni Association, on Tuesday, a committee of five were appointed to raise an Alumni fund for increasing the Institute library, and $1,000 was afterward pledged to this fund.

The examination of classes was very thorough on the part of the professors, and very creditable on the part of the students.

The Conference visitors being organized, adopted a report to the Board of Trustees, which sets forth the highly prosperous condition of the Institute.

The Board were congratulated on their wisdom in securing the new professors, Drs. M. S. Terry, C. F. Bradley and R. L. Cumnock, and the election of the new President, Dr. Ridgway. They expressed their appreciation of the efforts made by the faculty to raise the standard of scholarship and so extend the course of study as to make the degrees and diplomas of this Institute equal, or superior, to those of any other theological school.

They set forth the urgent need of a new building to be used for the library, chapel and recitation rooms, and rejoiced that steps had been taken for the immediate erection of such a building. They recommended that efforts be made to provide for library purposes $1,000 a year, for ten years, by securing the names of 100 persons who will give $10 each annually for that period. The outlook of the Institute was never more encouraging, and is the prophecy of great things for Methodism.

J. K. WALTS,
C. SKINNER,
Visitors.

We recommend as visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute, C. E. Disbro and W. H. Daniel.

Children's Day.

Your committee recommend the observance of Children's Day according to the provisions of the Discipline.

APPORTIONMENT FOR EDUCATION—We recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved That the presiding Elders be instructed to apportion to the several districts on the same basis as the apportionment of the other benevolent collection is made, the sum of $1,000, to be applied as the educational collection of the Conference.

J. K. WALTS, Secretary. JOHN E. EARP, Chairman.

On Temperance.

We do most heartily endorse the strong and strictly just language of Bishop R. S. Foster, in setting forth the iniquity of the liquor traffic, and in urging to united action against it, as follows:

"That diabolical conspiracy, that nameless 'monstrum horrendum' of "Christian civilization, that mothers nine-tenths of the woes and sorrows "which blight and curse our modern age, and hides its deformity under "forms of law. How long shall the face of our Christian age blister with "this worse than pagan shame? Has the virtue of our time degenerated "so low, that we do not even blush at the legislated traffic in the souls of our "own children; that by the very doors of our houses, and our temples, an "army of miscreants should, by authorization of laws made by Christian "law-givers, prosecute a work of murder and death? Are we reduced to "the shame of admitting that a civilization that has grown up about our "altars is impotent to cure evil? How can we go to the heathen with this "cancer of worse than heathen infamy festering in our bosom? If ever "the pulpit had the right, the duty to speak out, it is here."

Therefore, as a Conference of Christian Ministers we declare,

1. That we do heartily approve of the continued use of every measure adopted in the past by wise and earnest temperance people, if they are still found to be efficient in contributing to the speedy overthrow of this "diabolical conspiracy."

2. We hereby notify all political parties and people that we do most solemnly and emphatically protest against all license laws, whether "high license" or "low license," or any other law which does in any manner legalize, and thereby tend to make respectable, this infamous business, and if such continue to exist or may hereafter be enacted, we only submit to them as we would to any other iniquitous legislation.

3. We especially declare that, while we earnestly and sincerely desire to recognize the rights of all men, yet we must kindly say that we are not satisfied with the attitude of any Methodist Ministers or laity who favor even temporarily the "license system;" or who do not stand squarely in favor of the recommendation of our last General Conference, as found in paragraph 554 of our Discipline; or who are unwilling to accept and proclaim as their motto, "Voluntary total abstinenece from all intoxicants as the true ground of personal temperance; and complete legal prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating drinks, as the duty of civil government."

4. We furthermore declare it to be our fixed purpose to vote, and in all proper ways to use our influence, according to our best judgment in the fear of God, so as to most speedily and surely unite the entire temperance element of our country for the legal prohibition throughout the nation of the accursed liquor traffic; and we deem it to be unkind and very unchristian if any of our Methodist people may refuse to respect and financially support any of our Ministers for so doing; therefore—

Resolved, That we do most earnestly request and urge the next General Assembly of Indiana to submit a prohibitory amendment of the Constitution to a vote of the people, forever prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage in said State, and that we also favor the enactment by the Legislature of a general local option law, to be used during the pending of such proposed amendment.

Resolved, That we reiterate our endorsement and hearty recognition of the noble work being done by the "Woman's Christian Temperance Union."

Resolved, That we commend the Rev. R. D. Spellman, to the various temperance organizations for employment as an advocate of temperance.

Resolved, That we unite with the "Woman's Christian Temperance Union" in most respectfully requesting the "International Committee of the Evangelical Alliance," to set apart one entire day of THE WEEK OF PRAYER to be devoted to prayer for the abolition of the liquor traffic.

H. J. MECK, Secretary. E. F. HASTY, Chairman.

On Freedmen's Aid.

Your Committee on Freedmen's Aid Society, would respectfully report, that there is a gratifying increase in the amount of collections reported this year, over those of last year, the whole amount being $799.57.

We submit the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The wants and demands of our educational work in the South are so great, be it therefore,

Resolved, That we accept as a Conference the apportionment of $1,500, to be raised for the Freedman's Aid Society next year, and we will endeavor, with God's help, to raise the same.

Resolved, That in view of this pledge to raise our apportionment, and to aid in fulfilling it, we request this Society to send each pastor its new lithographic chart, giving information as to the educational wants of the South, and the work being accomplished by the Society.

Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of Rev. J. C. Murray to the Chair of Theology in the Gammon School of Theology, in Clark Univereity, Atlanta, Georgia.

C. U. WADE,
E. P. CHURCH,
D. F. STRIGHT,
Committee.

On Tracts.

Your Committee on Tracts would submit the following report:

WHEREAS, We truly believe the Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church is one of its most worthy and useful enterprises.

WHEREAS, We are convinced that there never has been a time in the history of the Church when there was a greater demand for the dissemination of a pure Christian literature among the people, than at the present; therefore,

Resolved, That, as pastors, we will do all in our power to distribute tracts among our people, and that we will take up a collection for this cause in the early part of the year, and dispose of the same as directed by the Discipline.

Receipts during the past year, $149.67. Increase over last year, $26.47.

R. H. SMITH,
I. J. BICKNELL,
E. W. OSBURN,

On Sunday-Schools.

Resolved, That each Pastor arrange in the interest of the Sunday-School Union for the observance of "Glad Tidings Day," on the third Sabbath of October, 1886, and forward the amount collected to Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Resolved, That earnest effort be made to introduce our Sunday-School literature: The Sunday-School Advocate; The Classmate; Our Youth; Picture Lesson Papers, and The Oxford League Course, into all the Sunday-Schools and families of the Church.

Resolved, That, at the request of the agent of the Sunday-School Union, we collect and forward to him all the Sunday-School literature that can be spared from our home libraries.

J. W. LOWREY, Secretary. G. H. HILL, Chairman.

Sunday-School Society.

The officers of the Sunday-school Society offer the following report:

We recommend to the Committee on Public Worship, of our next Annual Conference, that one evening of the session be devoted to the Sunday-school cause by holding an Anniversary, to be addressed by such persons as may be selected by the officers of said Society.

The Secretary of the Society has been appointed a committee to correspond with Dr. Vincent, or some other Sunday-School worker, and request him or them, to attend our next Conference, and address us in the interests of Sunday-Schools on the occasion of the above mentioned Anniversary.

The following persons were recommended for officers for the following year:

President, W. H. Daniel; Secretary, O. S. Harrison; Treasurer, P. J. Albright.

Vice-presidents, M. A. Teague, I. J. Smith, A. S. Wooten, H. C. Smith, H. N. Herrick and J. B. Carns.

On motion, it was requested by the Society, that each Vice-President, under the direction of the Presiding Elder of his District, hold a District Convention at such convenient time and place as they may designate.

On motion, it was advised that the Presiding Elders nominate the members of the Sunday-School Society as the Committee on Sunday-Schools.

O. S. HARRISON, Secretary. W. H. DANIEL, President.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

WHEREAS, The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has proved a grand agency for the spread of the Gospel; therefore,

Resolved, That we commend the work of the Society.

Resolved, That we will use our utmost endeavors to increase its efficiency, by encouraging the organization of auxiliaries in all our charges.

D. C. WOOLPERT, Secretary. F. G. BROWNE, Chairman.

Woman's Home Missionary Society.

WHEREAS, The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was recognized by the last General Conference; and,

WHEREAS, There exists a vast and inviting field which has been worked so little in the past, but is so full of promise of fruit, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we will welcome into our charges those engaged in the organization of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, and will give them all assistance possible.

T. J. THARP, Chairman.

On American Bible Society.

The amount of money coming into my hands for the American Bible Society was $88.71, which was paid over to Cranston & Stowe, and for which I hold their receipt.

It is recommended that for the ensuing Conference year, especial efforts be made to raise the entire amount assessed for this object.

T. H. C. BEALL,
Committee.

Committees of Inquiry.

We, the committee called together by the Presiding Elder of the Richmond District, W. S. Birch, to whom was referred the case of the Rev. D. M. Brown, Missionary at Las Vegas, New Mexico, by the last Annual Conference, met in Richmond, Indiana November 17, 1885, and after carefully examining the evidence, consisting of correspondence, etc, in hand, beg leave to make the following report:

1. That a letter written by the Rev. D. M. Brown to the Rev. W. S. Birch, dated September 9, 1885, embracing the latest facts, states that he is not in accord with some of the doctrines of the Methodist Episcopal Church, but does not state the points of divergence.

2. That having examined all the correspondence relating to the case, and also an abstract of his farewell sermon at Las Vegas, New Mexico, we, because of the indefiniteness of their statement, do not find sufficient basis for a bill of charges.

3. That from the Superintendent of the Mission, the Rev. Thos. Harwood, we learn that Brother Brown's attitude toward our Church has been most friendly, and his moral character above reproach.

Therefore, we recommend that his character be passed, and that he be granted a location at his own request.

The Committee to whom the case of Brother I. M. Wolverton was referred report as follows:

Having carefully considered all the facts in the case, that came into our possession, it is our opinion he was not justified in leaving his charge. But, as he acknowledges his error, and deeply regrets the step he took in so doing, and promises that by the next Conference session he will be ready to take work, if he can possibly arrange his business, and if he can not, he will ask for a location, we, therefore, recommend that he be placed on the supernumerary list without appointment for the ensuing year.

IN MEMORIAM.

NOTE.—The following list includes all the deceased members of the North Indiana Conference since the division of the north half of the State into two Conferences—the North Indiana, and the North-West Indiana—in 1852.

The roll is made up from the printed minutes.

It is greatly to be regretted that greater care has not been observed in the preparation of the Memoirs, several of which fail even to furnish the items necessary to fill the columns below.

"There is no death! What seems so is transition;
This life of mortal breath
Is but a suburb of the life elysian
Whose portals we call death."

MEMOIRS.

The Rev. Jacob Colclazer.

Jacob Colclazer was born in Georgetown, D. C., September 22, 1813, and died in Kendallville, December 24, 1885, aged 72 years, 3 months, and 2 days.

He was the child of Methodist parents. In his early boyhood his father removed across the line into the city of Washington. Here he resided until the year 1825, when the family removed to Coshocton county, Ohio. Here Brother Colclazer lived for ten years. In 1835 he came, in company with his brother George, to Indiana, and settled in what is now the city of Logansport, which was then a mere Indian trading post.

In his youth his educational advantages were meager, being such only as were afforded by the instructions of an intelligent, pious sister, the Sabbath-School, an attendance for a few months on the free schools of Washington City, by studious habits, and a bright and consecrated intellect. Perseverance and determination of purpose marked him all his life, and made him a man of good education, and of superior attainments.

Brother Colclazer was converted in Ohio, August 17, 1831, and on the same date united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, which he always loved, ever honored, and to which he gave the services and powers of his life.

Two weeks after his arrival at Logansport, the Rev. J. A. Brouse appointed him leader of a class of thirteen members. April 12, 1836, he received license to exhort, and on the 24th of September of the same year he was licensed to preach, by the Rev. Richard Hargrove, in a little frame church on what is now Third street in the city of Peru. On the same day he was recommended for admission into the traveling connection. He was admitted on trial in the old Indiana Conference, October 23, 1836.

Brother Colclazer's first charge was Deep River Mission, a circuit of endless forests, and hundreds of miles in extent. In 1837 he was sent to the Kalamazoo Circuit, Michigan, as junior preacher, where he had thirty-two appointments, and traveled a territory of 500 miles; 1838, he was sent to Logansport; in 1839 to Fort Wayne, where he built a small frame church on the site of the present Berry Street Church, and organized the First Methodist Sunday-School in the city. In 1840, he was sent to Monticello Circuit. His parsonage was a log cabin of a single room, near the Tippecanoe battle ground. Here he found and brought into the itinerancy H. N. Barnes and Milton Mahin. In 1841 his work was Dayton; 1842, Frankfort. In 1843, he was sent to Kokomo Mission, and preached his first sermon in one of the two houses then in the town. He also assisted in laying out the original plat of the city.

His fields of labor continue as follows: 1844, Rockville; '45, Roseville; '46, Rochester; '47, Delphi; '48, Covington; '49, Middletown; '50–51, Muncie; '52, Centerville; '53–4–5–6, Presiding Elder of the Goshen District; '57–8–9, Presiding Elder of the West Fort Wayne District; '60, Richmond; '61–2, Roberts' Chapel, Indianapolis; '63–4, Logansport; '65, Wabash; '66–7, Peru; '68, supernumerary; '69, superannuated; '70–1, St. Paul, Peru; '72–3, Warsaw; '74, Berry Street, Fort Wayne; '75–6, New Castle. In 1876 he lost the sight of one eye, and resigned his charge in the middle of the year; '77, superannuated; '78–9, Peru. In 1880, he superannuated on account of the almost total loss of sight in his remaining eye, and continued in that honorable relation as long as he lived. This long and excellent record shows nearly forty-five years of effective service, and over forty-nine years in the ministry. In 1860 he was a delegate to the General Conference at Buffalo.

After his superannuation he removed to Rome City, where he engaged in the book and drug business, and within the last two years he removed to Kendallville.

Brother Colclazer was married August 22, 1839, to Miss Isabella M. Sholtz, of Carrol county, Ind., the Rev. George M. Beswick officiating. Four children were given to this marriage. Two of these passed away in early childhood, and on January 28, 1847, he buried his wife. He was married for the second time, November 5, 1848, to Miss Eliza A. Hathaway, his now bereaved companion. One son was given to this union, who died before his father.

During his superannuation, and the almost total blindness of his later years, our brother was always cheerful and hopeful. None heard him complain. The refining fire of affliction showed him to be the pure and fine gold. He was abundant in labors, as far as his strength and health would permit, and identified himself with every interest of the Church. He was helpful to his pastor, sweet in his spirit, and greatly interested in the work of the Sabbath-School, giving much attention to a Bible class, of which he was the teacher

His final illness was protracted. The nature of his disease was such that much of the time he suffered severe pain, which he bore with the greatest resignation and patience. Those who were with him in the last days of his sojourn say that it was indeed an inspiration to see and hear him. These almost fifty years of service were crowned with a halo of glory and of triumph. Testimonies of peace, of joy, and of vision, made his sick room seem quite on the verge of heaven. He was honored, like Elisha at Dothan, and the cohorts of glory awaited his passage to convey him to the presence of the Savior whom he had loved and served so long.

To his pastor he often testified: "I am resting in the rifted rock.' Concerning his recovery he declared, "I have no will of my own." Of his experience he remarked, "For fifty years I have been wondering how it would seem at the death hour, but while walking through the valley of the shadow of death His rod and staff they comfort me; there is no river here." His dying message to us was, "Tell my Brethren at Conference all is well with me; that the same Jesus I have preached in life was my sure support in death; tell them I love them all." During his last lucid interval, he drew his pastor over near to his mouth, and whispered, "Preach Christ; I have tried so to do." Then with a face beaming with light and joy, he said, articulating with difficulty, "Look, Look! Don't you see them? They're coming, they're coming!—Angels! Angels! A great company! I see mother! I see Thomas! O how beautiful! Transcendent glory! How precious! O such fullness! Majesty! Eternity! How comforting is Christ in this hour of my triumph!" While the cold beads of sweat were standing on his brow he distinctly uttered his last words, "I hear the angels singing! I am almost home." Thus did this saintly man depart to his inheritance.

His funeral services were held in the Methodist church in Goshen, and more than twenty of his Brethren in the ministry gathered to do him honor. His body was laid away by the side of his dear boy, among many who had labored with him in early days, amid the scenes of his first work, in the midst of the people to whom he had devoted years of the strength of his manhood as the ambassador of Christ.

Jacob Colclazer was a man and a minister whose life and work are his best and most eloquent eulogy. He was a man of power, and great influence, as well as usefulness. As a preacher, he was eloquent, forceable, instructive, and strong. He dealt much on Bible doctrines. His utterances were supplemented by an untarnished Christian character, against which no breath of reproach was ever directed. He was as loyal to the Church of his choice as he was to his God and Savior. He was always industrious, and consistent. While a vein of melancholy often showed itself in his character, he was always resigned and full of trust. His demeanor was that of a true Christian gentleman, and such as adorned and honored the cause he represented. He never forgot who or what he was, or whom he came to proclaim. Although of not more than medium height, and not apparently of remarkable vigor of body or constitution, yet he performed some of the most difficult of our pioneer labor, and prolonged his years of effective service to a length rarely equaled. In the churches he served his name is remembered with the most kindly feeling. Many circuits and stations stand as lasting monuments of his usefulness, monuments better than brass or marble.

As a citizen he was ever interested in the public welfare, and in all the great reforms of the age. All his influence was thrown on the side of uprightness, and his motto was "For God and humanity."

In his family, he was most affectionate and kind. The husband and father was not surpassed by the citizen or the minister of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Others who are here to-day will do him full justice, and can speak from more extended knowledge than the writer. The fathers! Where are they? We enter into the results of their labors, and let us see to it that we carry forward and advance the cause they loved so well, and hand down to our successors the precious trust they have given into our hands. Let us not forget our brother. Such men are precious in this heedless world. Let us emulate his virtues, and do as well if we can.

May our blessed Savior lead his lonely wife gently by the hand into the land of reunion, and restore her to her glorified husband.

"Prisoner long detained below,
Prisoner now with freedom blessed,
Welcome from the world of woe;
Welcome to the land of rest!

"Thus the kindly angels sing,
As they bear the soul on high,
While with hallelujahs ring
All the regions of the sky."

The Rev. Abia M. Kerwood.

The Rev. Abia Minor Kerwood, son of Richard Kerwood, was born in Washington county, Pennsylania, August 2, 1812, and died in Muncie, Ind., March 25, 1886, aged 73 years, 7 months, and 25 days.

He was sprung from English ancestry, and came of a long-lived race. He grew to manhood in the place of his birth, working with his father at the blacksmith trade. On arriving at his majority, our brother came to what was then the far west. He embarked on an Ohio river steamboat, and came to Cincinnati, whence he went to Oxford, Ohio, where his brother was living. Here he attended school and worked at his trade. He was married in Preble county, Ohio, in 1840, to Miss Rebecca Peden, whom he had met on his journey to Cincinnati, and who survives him. After his marriage he engaged in mercantile pursuits and farming in Preble county. In 1848, he removed to Wayne county, Indiana, where he engaged in farming and teaching school.

Brother Kerwood was converted in the year 1832, and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which he remained in communion, and to which he gave the best of his life. He was licensed to preach in 1841, by the Rev. James B. Finley, and served the Church in the local capacity until 1854, when he was received on trial in the North Indiana Conference, at its session in the city of Peru. Of the class of fifteen who were then admitted, the Rev. J. S. McCarty only remains in the effective ranks. Bishop Simpson ordained him as a Deacon in 1857, and Elder in 1862. He spent forty-five years in the ministry, of which twenty-five were in the effective intinerancy.

His fields of labor were as follows: '54, Muncie Mission; '55, New Corydon; '56–7, Montpelier; '58–9, Portland; '60–1, LaFontaine; '62, Normandy; '63–4, Boxley; '65, Alto; '66, Miami; '67, New Corner; '68–9, Montpelier; '70–1, Camden; '72, Ridgeville; '73, Williamsburgh; '74, Eden; '75, Westfield; '76, Kempton; '77–8, Boxley; '79, superanuated. Upon receiving this relation he took up his residence in Camden, afterward removing to Muncie, where he remained until he passed to his reward above.

Brother Kerwood was a clear and forcible preacher, powerful in prayer, original, logical, apt to teach. He was a good Biblical scholar, strong in his individuality, and ever acceptable to the people he served. During his superannuation he continued to preach, and to do good, whenever and wherever opportunity afforded, visiting his neighbors, and talking to them about the interests of their souls. During his last years he was confined much of the time to his home by the side of his afflicted wife, who had so heroically shared with him the work of the itinerancy, and to whom he was constantly devoted.

For a month previous to his death he suffered from rheumatism, but continued to be about until the 18th of March last, when he had an attack of erysipelas, which proved to be fatal. During his brief illness of a week he could converse but little with his friends, but in all that he did say, he gave them every assurance that he was ready to depart to be with Christ. One of his last utterances was, "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his."

In his early ministry, when streams were not bridged, and churches were few, he uncomplainingly endured the privations, the storms and the cold, with an unselfish devotion. His voice was heard in the cabins of the early settlers, and to many a pioneer he broke the bread of life.

He leaves a wife and five children; three sons and two daughters. One son died some years ago.

His funeral was held in the city of Muncie, on the 28th of March, by his pastor, the Rev. T. Stabler, assisted by the Rev. J. A. Ruley. A very large congregation testified to the esteem and honor in which he was held by both Church and community. His remains were conveyed to Beech Grove Cemetery, to await the glorious hour of the resurrection of those who sleep in Christ. "He rests from his labors and his works do follow him."

Mrs. Cassandra Smith.

Cassandra McKahan, wife of the Rev. John W. Smith, and mother of the Rev. R. H. Smith, both of this Conference, was born in the State of Pennsylvania, April 20, 1818, and died in Albion, Indiana, May 30, 1885, aged 67 years.

At the age of 24, in 1842, she was converted under the labors of the Rev. Thomas Bartlett. She immediately became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with which for forty-three years she walked humbly, faithfully, and devotedly, and which she not only adorned but built up and profited.

September 22, 1842, she was married to Brother Smith, who in the mysterious ways of a good and merciful Providence, is called upon to survive her whom he needs so much, although it had often seemed as he would preceed her to the better land. How often the well and strong are called first, while the feeble and the pain-bearers are left to be the last. Our Sister was the mother of one daughter and of seven sons, all of whom are living.

Her illness was protracted, and severe. It continued some nine weeks, and was exceedingly painful, consisting of a diabetic gangrene of one extremity, and terminating in blood-poisoning. This long sickness she bore with the utmost patience, and the sweetest resignation. Her mental faculties were unimpaired up to the very last, as long as she was able to speak. When it became evident that the Savior had determined that he could no longer be without her immediate presence with him in glory, she gave many joyful utterances of assurance. Among them were such as these: "Precious Jesus!" "All is well." "I will meet you at the river, where no farewell tears are shed." Many other testimonies of the same import fell from her lips, and now remain in the hearts of her friends for their consolation.

But her life, long and useful, her long membership in the Church, and her active and unceasing labors, are the best witnesses of her fitness to be forever with the Lord. When, some three years after her marriage, her husband was called of God to enter the work of the ministry, she raised no objection, but went with him cheerfully, as if saying, "Thy people shall be my people, thy God shall be my God, and thy work shall be my work." Her earnest labors, and able assistance to her husband, will never be forgotten, either here, or up yonder. Not only the Churches, of which her husband was pastor, but the other ministers, who have at times been her pastors, and especially her present Presiding Elder, unite in bearing the most gratifying testimony to her worth, her zeal in the cause of the Master, and her especial adaptation to the work to which she and hers were called. She won a host of friends in every charge, and the results of her labors will be traced,

> "While life, and thought, and being last,
> Or immortality endures."

The sons whom she raised to maturity, cherish her saintly memory as a treasure. With them her teachings and prayers linger as a sweet perfume. Her stricken husband, though he sits in pain and feebleness, is consoled by the thought that above she loves and cherishes him a thousand fold more tenderly than ever her unfailing love could do in this world. May they have a day of glad reunion in that land "where the inhabitant thereof shall not say, 'I am sick.'"

The funeral services of Sister Smith were conducted at Albion by her Presiding Elder and former pastor, the Rev. F. T. Simpson, assisted by her pastor, the Rev. M. S. Marble, and the Rev. C. H. Wilkinson, of Wolcottville. The church was appropriately decorated, and a large audience was in attendance. Her remains were laid away in the beautiful village cemetery at Albion, to rest until the glad day "When soul and body shall his glorious image bear."

Mrs. Sarah A. Cooper.

Sarah Ann Cooper, wife of the Rev. J. J. Cooper, was born in Prebel county, Ohio, January 26, 1841, and died in Perrysburgh, Miami county, Indiana, October 7, 1885, aged 44 years, 8 months, and 11 days. She was the daughter of Dr. Cornelius and Jemima Hector.

When she was about ten years of age, her parents removed to Miami county, Indiana, where she resided some fourteen years, until her marriage.

After she had passed her twentieth year, she was soundly converted under the labors of the Rev. J. V. R. Miller, formerly a member of this Conference, whom she always claimed as her spiritual father. She immediately united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she remained a faithful and consistent member during all of her early life.

April 8, 1865, she was married to our bereaved Brother Cooper, and cheerfully entered upon the toilsome lot of an itinerant's wife. One daughter, now about 17 years old, was given to them.

In all the work of the ministry, its labors, its cares, and its interests, she was ever a faithful helpmeet to her husband, ever cheering and sustaining him, and by her wise councils and encouragements contributing to his success. She was active in the work of the Church, in labors abundant, and in love for the Church, its doctrines, and its economy, unceasing.

For some years before her departure to the better life, her strength began to fail, and the evidences of that fell destroyer—consumption—prophesied the end of earthly probation. For over two years she was a great sufferer. Although everything possible was done by the medical skill of her father, and of the physicians where she resided, it was impossible to arrest the onward march of the disease. From day to day, and month to month, she slowly faded away, displaying the greatest patience, never uttering a murmur, soothed by the loving ministrations of husband, daughter, and friends, with alternate hope and shadow, as is the manner of that great scourge—consumption,—until the tardy end drew near. To the very last she retained the full possession of all her faculties, and without a fear, without a tremor, went down into the waters of Jordan. As the waves grew deeper, Divine grace lifted her up, and proved that He was not absent who has promised to be with His people unto the end of the world.

She exhorted her daughter to be faithful, and to meet her in Heaven. She plainly answered the affectionate inquiry of her husband if she suffered any pain by declaring that she felt none at all. Her only anxiety was to see her father's face once more before she went away, a desire which unfortunately was not gratified, as he arrived half an hour after her decease. Soon after these last exhortations she fell so sweetly and softly asleep in Jesus, that the lookers-on scarcely knew that she had ceased to breathe.

Her remains were taken to Gilead, the home of her youth, on the 10th of October. Her funeral was preached to a large concourse by the Rev. J. C. Reed, D. D., of Rochester, from the twenty-third Psalm. Her wasted body was laid by the side of two of her sisters, to sleep until the Resurrection morning.

Our ministers' wives die well, just as well as their husbands. May our loving Father, and our Elder Brother give abundant grace and unfailing consolation to our brother, who bears so bravely the burden of so many years, as well as of sorrow, and grant him a glorious reunion in the land of the many mansions.

Mrs. Brejetta Wayman.

Another itinerant's home is desolate, for its light has gone out and left it in darkness.

Brejetta Hoover was the daughter of Leason and Mary Hoover. Her parents were among the early settlers in the State, and with them she shared all the toils, trials, and privations, of pioneer life. She was born in Wayne county, Indiana, August 4, 1817, and died in Goldsmith, Indiana January 23d, 1886, aged 68 years, 5 months, and 19 days.

Her youth, early womanhood, and the first of her married life, were passed in the county of her birth, until she was 39 years old. At the age of 12 she was converted, under the labors of Father Havens, that saintly man of God, whose name has the fragrance of ointment poured forth among the churches. She gave her name and her heart at once to the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for fifty-six years faithfully walked with God, and adorned the Church of her choice. In all of her Christian life she was very earnest and faithful. Hers was no nominal church membership, no mere form of religion, but was ever a true, a deep, a heartfelt work, a godliness having the power as well as the form. There was no deviation in her allegiance to her Heavenly Father, and from the surrender of her heart to her Redeemer she never drew back.

She was married to our sorely bereaved Brother Wayman, February 13, 1834, at the age of 17. A jubilee and two more of years were given to them in this sweet and pleasant marriage relation. In unbroken harmony and tender love they walked hand in hand along life's pathway, from the morning of early youth, through the busy heat and burden of the day, down into the evening of old age, until the shadows were thrown far aslant. She was a good, true, and faithful wife all these many years, a devoted mother, and a household saint. Quiet, reserved, unassuming, she did her work well. She was the mother of ten children, of whom she committed six into the hands of her Savior until the day she should rejoin them, and four are left to follow in her saintly footsteps.

When, in 1856, Brother Wayman was called of God, to go out with the message of the gospel, she went with him nothing loath, and cheerfully took up the burden at an age when so many think of laying it down. So late in life it seemed doubly hard to go out into the ministerial work, yet she went forth simply, trustingly, content to follow wherever her Master should lead.

For almost thirty years she gave strength and all to the cause of Christ, and made a good, and faithful minister's wife. Her praise in all the Churches, wherever the voice of Providence sent her.

For several years past she has been greatly afflicted. Her eyesight began to fail her, until she could scarcely distinguish any face. During the last two years of her life there developed what proved to be a cancer on her temple, which destroyed the eye, the ear, and the parts adjacent to them. So quietly and uncomplainingly did she bear the pain and unceasing suffering of this terrible infliction, that it was scarcely known among us that she was the subject of the ravages of this terrible disease. Her faith failed not, and she found it true that according to her day so should her strength be. She rested in Jesus every hour. She often testified to the power of the divine grace in this dark trial, and said frequently, "I am ready; all is bright and clear; I do want to go to my heavenly home and be at rest."

The day before she died, she bade all good by, and then requested every one to leave the room for awhile, for she wanted to be alone with her God. When her husband returned to the sick chamber, after this season of sublime communion with her heavenly Father, she said that her cancer did not pain her any more. And thus, in this peace and rest, our Saviour granted her an easy departure to be with him, which is far better.

Her funeral was preached at Goldsmith, by the Rev. A. Cone, of Tipton, and her body was taken to Ridgeville, to be buried, where services were also held, conducted by the Rev. J. W. Lowrey, on January, 24th.

Her long and useful life is finished, but her memory and good deeds shall live after her. May the never failing grace of heaven sustain her aged consort the few more days of his pilgrimage, until he too shall dwell where separations and sorrows never come.

FRESH TESTIMONIALS

OF THE PEERLESSS EXCELLENCE OF

M'Clintock & Strong's Cyclopædia

FROM THOSE WHO HAVE LEARNED ITS VALUE IN THE STUDY.

LATEST REVISED EDITION.

WITH NUMEROUS MAPS, 2,700 ILLUSTRATIONS AND 41,000 SUBJECTS, IN TEN VOLUMES AND ONE SUPPLEMENT.

Hear what Clergymen of Illinois and Indiana say of this Great Work.

"M'Clintock & Strong's Cyclopædia" is the best thing of the sort in the English language.—Dr. Robert Allyn, President of the Southern Illinois Normal University.

I have ten volumes of this work in my library, and would not be without them for double the money they cost me, as I know of nothing that could supply the place of them.—Rev. W. H. Wilder, Paxton, Illinois.

I think it the best thing of the kind in print. I can not see how it is possible to excel it.—Rev. I. Villars, Champaign, Ill.

It is the very best thing for a minister's library. I would not be without it for twice its cost. It is my standard source of knowledge. I could not do my studying aright without this Cyclopædia.—Rev. E. A. Hoyt, Lebanon, Ill.
